My dear Sir.

Adverting to my D.O. letter No 668 of the 18th inst. I now write to say that Messrs M. Ramakrishna Rao & S. Shamarao, reported themselves to me for duty. The former this day & the latter the day before yesterday. And that they have been deputed for work under the Sunbar Bakshee of the Military Secretary respectively under His Highness orders.

In the matter of Mr. Ranga Rao's deputation I fear I may not have made myself clear in the matter of the terms, and lest there should be any trouble about them later I hasten to make the situation clear.

Mr. Rungachari was getting as Dewan Huzur Peshkar Rs 2000/- (as substantive Amildar. II class) + Rs 50/- local allowance. Just on the retirement of Mr S. Krishnaswami from the 1st Jan 1911, a vacancy has been caused in the I class of Amildars. and it is presumed that in the usual course it will go to Mr. Ranga Rao who is senior in the II class. As it is His Highness intention that Mr. Rungachari should not be a loser financially by reason of his deputation. it is hoped that there will be no difficulty in the way of his getting during the period what he would have got, if he had been left undisturbed in Hassan.

I am
Yours sincerely

There are 2 points for consideration in this case. First the promotion of Mr. M. Ranga Rao to the 1st Class of Amildars to fill an existing vacancy, and second the continuance of the allowance of Rs 50 of which he was drawing as District Excise Officer. The first point is for Branch I to determine.

(4) As for point No 2, the allowance of Rs 50 of is a local allowance attached to the post of a Amildar - District Excise Officer and as Mr. Ranga Rao ceases to be a District Excise Officer he cannot continue to draw that allowance.

(5) There is no financial objection however, if the new work on which he is now engaged entails the work and responsibility, to sanction an allowance but that would be inconvenient as it is placed on the Special duty also would claim a like allowance. Whenever he can be promoted to the first Class he would get Rs 250/- and no allowance and when he ceases to be a ~~loser~~ sufferer in any ways he would get Rs 250 as pay instead of Rs ~~250~~ 200 + 50 as now. This is on the presumption that when he is promoted to the first Class he will not still be ~~a~~ District Excise Officer, otherwise he will still be a loser by Rs 50/-.

For I also [illegible] Branch [illegible] 1st Grade of [illegible] Amildars).

Branch Ex

1/3.5.10.

(6) The promotion of Mr. Ranga Rau to the vacancy in the 1st grade of Asts is matter for disposal in the Revenue Branch which may call for proposals from the Rev Comr for filling up vacancies in the higher grades of Asts caused by retirements &c, and duly bring it to disposal.

The question will be taken up soon & the promotion will take effect from the date of the vacancy

(7) The question for consideration now is whether Mr. Ranga Rau (as Asst 2nd grade, or 1st grade) will be affected as regards pay by the present deputation. The answer is clear that he must be a loser by Rs 50/- per mensem, which

NOTE—Contn. sheet.

GPB—55,000—27-4-09

amount was being drawn as Allowance by him as District Excise Officer, and which must cease when he is taken away from that appointment.

8) There is however one point touched upon by the Fd Asst Secy which has to be noticed, viz; the likelyhood or otherwise, of Mr Rangachari being kept on as Dt Excise Officer after being promoted to the 1st grade of Asst on 250/-. Though there is nothing prohibiting such continuance, yet an anomaly will result from it, inasmuch as the Asst as Dt Excise Officer will get more pay than an Asst Comr of the last grade employed on the same duty. The former will get 1st grade Asst's pay 250/- + 50/- Allce whereas an Asst Comr of the last grade will get only 250/- in the same appointment. If it is argued that for the sake of providing such an anomaly Mr Rangachari would not be kept on as Dt Excise Officer after his promotion to the 1st grade, but would be drafted to his permanent line as Asst, then he would not be a sufferer by the deputation, as in either case, the allowance of Rs 50/- would cease.

9) If, however, it is not intended

NOTE—Contn. sheet.

Serial No.

to enter into a consideration of this question, but it is presumed that Mr Rangaraw would continue as Dt Excise Offr, irrespective of the grade occupied by him as Amildar, then it is clear that he would be a loser by Rs 50/- per mensem by the Deputation. and If as mentioned by the Hyderabad Secretary in his D.O., Mr R is to get during this ~~deputation~~ period "what he would have got, if he had been left undisturbed in Hassan", it will be necessary to sanction to him a deputation allowance of Rs 50/- for the period.

Secretary) 3/5/10

(10) The promotion to the 1st grade of amildars will be considered separately but it will not affect Mr Rangaraw's emoluments during deputation inasmuch as he will get the promotion with effect from the date the vacancy arose viz some time in March - He will thus get the pay of the 1st class amildar during the deputation also.

(11) He will lose the local allce of Rs 50 he was getting as Dt Excise Officer He will naturally continue as Dt Excise Officer even after he becomes 1st class amildar unless Govt for any special reason decide to revert him to the Rev Dept- as amildar.

NOTE—Contn. sheet.

GPB—55,000—27-4-09

(12) The best course is to give him a deputation allce of 50 Rs during the time he is on duty in the Palace. The other amildar on similar duty may also perhaps be entitled reasonably claim a similar allce.

13 [It seems to me somewhat premature to consider what the effect of a promotion & the vacancy caused by Mr Krishna Iyer's retirement will be, until that promotion is actually ordered & becomes an accomplished fact - If it be that he will get 250+50, it may be necessary to modify the terms of the intimation contained in the footnote & Rev Dept- 5535]

14 It is now for me to enquire of the Comptroller unofficially what pay slip he has issued under the "intimation" contained in the footnote & Rev Dept- 5535- I presume it will be that he has authorized disbursement of the pay viz 250 of the last class of Deputy Collectors - I would however like to have a confirmation of this presumption

D.O. No. 896 27th May 10.

My dear Sir,

With reference to your D.O. no. 206 of the 23rd April 1910 on the subject of the emolument of Mr M. Ranga Rao, in special duty in the Palace, I write to say that as it is now it has been ascertained from the Comptr that Mr Ranga Rao who was drawing Rs 250 as Dt. Excise Officer (Pay as Asst Rs 200 + allowance Rs 50/-) continues to draw the same salary, viz. ~~Rs 200~~ Substantive pay Rs 200 + Cy. allowance as Asstt Cmr, ~~Rs 50~~. During the period of his deputation, therefore, he will get "what he would have got if he had been left undisturbed at Hassan".

2. If he is promoted as Asst, 1st class, and continued as Dt. Excise Offr, he would get Rs 250 + 50 with retrospective effect as Rs 50 more than what he now gets as AS. Asstt Cmr. But his promotion to the 1st class of Amildars has not yet been sanctioned, and I would suggest that the question of fixing his Salary during the period of his deputation with reference to his emoluments after his promotion to the 1st class of Anuradha may be taken up after the promotion is actually sanctioned

yrs sincerely
